

The Portuguese Ombudsman Message

“It's Christmas Time. To those who believe and live this Season deeply, I express my deepest respect and wishes of luck and a Merry Christmas.

To all of you, who does not believe in Jesus Christ, but accept the believers and respect them, likewise I wish you all the best, all my solidarity combined with a time full of joy and prosperity.

To everyone a Happy New Year of 2015 by the side of your loved ones.

Unfortunately there will be many who will be not able to celebrate anything, for those my heartfelt Solidarity and my ethical commitment in the search of a future where it is possible to celebrate everything for everybody.”
